Networking Grant

Are you a doctoral researcher at KIT and do you want to independently establish new important or beneficial international contacts in order to extend your personal network? If so KHYS offers you extensive assistance and financial support with a travel subsidy of up to €1,500 from the moment you got the idea right through to your initial approach.

With the Networking Grant you can travel abroad to visit a researcher or working group renowned in your area of expertise and in relation to your doctoral research project. There are no limits to what you can do with your ideas as part of the Networking Grant. For example, you could use the grant to plan a longer research period abroad. The main condition is that the contact must be a new one for you and your research group. Please note, that especially those applicants, who have not had the chance to gain international experience yet, will benefit most of this program and the accompanying workshop.

Application requirements:

- The contact you would like to establish has to be a new one for you/your working group and internationally oriented. New means that neither you nor your working group should have had personal contact to the person or working group abroad and that there should not have been any exchange of ideas and no other form of cooperation between you/your working group and the contact person/working group abroad so far.
- It is required that you already have an idea who you want to contact. The kick-off workshop can help you how to realize your contacting plans concretely.
- You are a doctoral researcher at KIT and officially accepted by your KIT department ("Fakultät") or you have been accepted as a doctoral researcher at a different university, but your main research focus is at KIT or you are supervised at KIT.
- You must be a member of KHYS.
- Participation at the kick-off workshop is mandatory to claim the funding.
- During the funding period (at the time of the trip) you must either have an employment at KIT with a monthly income of more than €450/month (no "Minijob"!) or no employment at KIT. Due to taxation and social security legislation reasons funding in combination with a “Minijob” at KIT is only possible if the “Minijob”-employment is being suspended for the month/s in which the travel takes place.

Please bear in mind, that the funding is exclusively for establishing new contacts and is supposed to enable you to establish new contacts on your own in future. The Networking Grant does not support research stays with existing contacts or conference visits.
